

Canada's Student Leaders Take To Parliament Hill for Advocacy Week 2011

Student Leaders from the Canadian Alliance of Student Associations (CASA) meet with government officials

- WHO: Canadian Alliance of Student Associations, student leaders
- WHAT: Student Leaders will meet in Ottawa as part of their yearly Advocacy Week calling on the government to make Canada's post-secondary education system more accessible to Canadian students.
- WHEN: Tuesday November 15th 2011
Wednesday November 16th 2011
Thursday November 17th 2011
- WHERE: Parliament Hill, Ottawa
- WHY: During this conference student leaders from across the country will gather to meet with government figures to discuss post-secondary education in Canada. Since its inception, CASA has been working with Members of Parliament and other key federal decision makers to explore realistic solutions for the improvement of Canada's post-secondary education system.
- INTERVIEW OPPORTUNITIES: CASA Board Chair, Chris Saulnier

Dalhousie University

CASA Treasurer, Ghislain LeBlanc,
Université de Moncton

CASA Secretary, Matthew McMillan,
University of Calgary

CASA Board Member, Nikki Harris,
Red River College

CASA Board Member, Meghan
Melnyk. Mount Royal University

CASA Board Member, Luke Speers,
Brock University

CASA Board Member, Pat Joyce,
Mount Allison University

-30-

For more information or assistance in reaching interview subjects, please contact Marianka Charalambij at 613 407-6420